

JOB POSTING: Youth Connections Team Leader (Summer Student)

Community Living Kincardine and District is looking for a full-time summer student to fill the role of Team Leader in our Youth Connections program. The Youth Connections Team Leader will work collaboratively with the Family Support team to plan meaningful and engaging summer programming for youth with developmental disabilities. Accessing community-based activities and opportunities helps these youth to build positive relationships, enhance their level of integration and improve their sense of belonging.

Working one-on-one or with small groups, the Team Leader will directly support youth as they participate in a variety of recreation and skill-building opportunities, such as volunteering at a cat shelter, visiting the Bruce County Museum, walking the trails, learning to cook, mini-golfing with friends and taking part in summer festivals and events. The Team Leader will use a person-directed approach to understand the unique interests and goals of each participant and select activities that align with their personal skills, capabilities and support needs.
